Find the parts you need, when you need them

PartFinder is a sales and marketing tool available to anyone wanting to get their parts inventory off their shelves and into the hands of buyers. As a database that is fully searchable by whole or partial part number and by country/state/province, PartFinder displays search results on-screen, including part description and price, vendor and quantity available, as well as seller information such as name, phone number, comments, terms and conditions and shipping methods. PFW offers e-mail/web site links, the option to order online and multilingual.

World-wide exposure

Because PartFinder is on the Internet, it is available all the time – 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Registered with common Internet search engines such as Google, Excite, Lycos, and Infoseek, the PartFinder site is easy to find and use, and no sign-in is required. Manufacturers, distributors and international dealerships are always welcome!
